

Red-Tailed Roost

A peaceful refuge in the Tennessee mountains for ministry couples to retreat and focus on their marriages.

For years, Howard and Jan Crawford dreamed of providing a retreat place for ministry couples. In 2008, that dream came true: Red-Tailed Roost.

Red-Tailed Roost is located near Allardt, Tenn., 25 miles from Jamestown, Tenn. Nashville, Knoxville, and Gatlinburg are within driving distance. The area is abundant with places to go and things to do: historical sites, shopping, state parks, fishing, hiking, kayaking or just relaxing on the front porch!

The cabin has a queen sized bed and sofa. The kitchen contains a refrigerator, stove/oven, microwave, toaster, and coffee pot. There is a full-sized bathroom. Bed linens are provided, however, towels are not.

The cabin is available by reservation only. Please contact the Crawfords by e-mail: janhow33@multipro.com

There is a $25.00/day charge and a minimum 3-day stay over the weekend.
